Sub. Creating awareness about Traffic Rules -Reg.

Sir/Madam,

As you are aware that there is great importance of traffic rules for safety of everybody. Traffic Police, drivers and pedestrians play vital role in ensuring road safety. With traffic violation on the rise, all over India, especially in metro-Politian cities, thousands of people are killed and thousands of people are seriously injured every year in traffic accidents.

Hence, it is extremely necessary, that NSS volunteers are imparted knowledge about traffic rules, by traffic police during NSS regular activities and special camping programmes.

You are therefore requested to write to the NSS functionaries in the state, universities to direct the Programme Officers NSS, under their jurisdiction to invite traffic police officials during regular activities and special camping programmes to create awareness among NSS volunteers about traffic rules so that young students can not only obey the traffic rules themselves, but can positively influence their family members, friends and other persons of society.

Yours faithfully

(Naveen Aggarwal) IPS
Director, NSS
